Congestion charge results, first year

Traffic in the charging zone fell by 18 percent in the first twelve months.

Bus journey times improved by 9 percent on the main corridors.

Retail footfall in the zone recovered to its earlier level within eight months.

Exemptions and fairness

Shift workers, carers and blue badge holders were exempt from the charge.

Revenue funded night buses on four new routes in the first year.